By deleting subsection (c) of the amendatory language of Section 1 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(c)(1) A violation of this section is a Class C misdemeanor punishable only by a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00); provided that any person violating this section shall be issued only one (1) citation for each incident regardless of the number of open containers in the passenger area of the motor vehicle.

(2) A law enforcement officer observing a violation of this section shall issue a citation to the violator, but shall not arrest or take into custody any person solely for a violation of this section unless the offender refuses to sign and accept the citation as provided in § 40-7-118.

(3) No court costs shall be imposed or assessed against anyone convicted of a violation of this section, including but not limited to any statutory fees of officers. No litigation tax levied pursuant to the provisions of title 67, chapter 4, part 6 shall be imposed or assessed against anyone convicted of a violation of this section.
